

"TELL THEM TO OBEY THE LAWS AND UPHOLD THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES."-LAST WORDS OF STEPREN A. DOUGLAS.

VOL. I.

URBANA, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2, 1862. Urbana Public Library NO. 1.

The Song of The Union. THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

On lany, can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we halled at the twilight's Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the peritons fight,

O'er the imageris we watched, were so gullant- am about to describe to you.

Gave proof through the night that our flag was -134) ISBN 4-1-On the shore dimly seen, through the mist of the

As it sitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?

That the havor of war and the battle's confusion, fore will; A home and a country should leave us no more?

Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps | Load to the Southward !" No retuge could save the hireling or slave,

From the terror of flight or the gloom of the And the star spangled benner in trium; b O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave. Oh! thus be if ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved home and war's desule

Blemed with victory and peace may the heavenreseased kend, Praise the power that both made and preserved

Oliver Wendell Holmes has added another It is worthy of that fine production of Mr. Key, and will, we trust, be permanuently incorporated in it:

When our land is illumined by Liberty's smile, If a Rie from within strike a blow at her glory, Bown Cown wifli the trainer that there to dethe The flar of her stars and the pure of literalous !

By the millions unchained when our birthright

And the Star Spangled Bauner in triumph While the land of the free is the home of the

Our Story-Erller.

GENERAL M'CLELLAN'S BARAN.

BY WESLEY BRADSHAW,

Two c'clock of the third night after Gen. that justly eminent soldler posting over living map. several mane, and reports of scouts.

an letimate friend, to whom he related the most succeed in its object, unless speedily narrative, "when I thought the door of my prevented. room, which I had carefully locked, was "Treachery! cried I, in despair, "In an instant thought became clear and der, said, in a slow, solenn voice;

and I cowardly shrunk into myselt at the time is short! Tarry not!" ness and get helplessness to make answer to minutest point I beheld without the slightest but it is only struggling in the path of an We replied: "We don't see it. We only M-n was accessed by a little girl, who of the Apostle Paul, in his epistle to the Egyp-tion." the unknown introder oppressed me, I once effort, delay or mistake, an infinite space, and that the voice came the noonday sun, as of a huge rough icicle being sawed back Sariour.

and forth through and through me. "I started up, or rather I should say I at the heavenly vision. From the sweet and and final struggle, when he may, once more joy, as defeat after defeat overtakes these inshought I started up, for whether I was silent repose of Mount Vernon our Washing- laying aside the cerements of Mount Vernon, ternal traitors! Let me assure you the mest found to contain a new suit of clothes, and get shot in the neck? Certainly they do: awake or asleep I am utterly unable to de-ton Lad risco, to once more encircle and raise come a messenger of succor and peace, from melancholy news that ever came to Tennes- upon one garment was pinned a small card, that's what's the matter." (Cries of "good.") cide. My first thought was about my maps, up, with his saving arm, our fallen, bleeding the Great Ruler, who has all the nations of see, was that of the battle of Manassas! neatly inscribed with the name of his benefacand, before my syelids had half opened my country.

appeared. The furniture was gone, the walls this:

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting there spread out before me, was a living map, therefore, they owed to God tempt to vindicate our Nortle n brethren. As in the first instance, the only communicate our nortle n brethren. Ohl say, does the star spangled banner still grand coup of cell my sye took in the whole pliantly. expanse of country, as far south as the Gulf "A century has not passed since then, and O'er the land of the free, and the home of the of Mexico and from the Atlantic ocean on yet the Child Republic has taken her position

Where the foo's hangity host in fread silence of the mysterious visitant, whose voice I had greatly prospered. And now, by every rea-What is that, which the breeze o'er the towering toward him. An apparition stood on my to her second great struggle. This is by far. Sin: Allow me space in your columns to Now it eatens the gleam of the morning's first six feet for me. I sought for his features, Passing, as she is, from childhood to opening I. It is with much regret that I mark the In full glory reflected now shines on the stream pointed, for the statute-like figure was nought vast result, Self-conquest, to learn that im- at the "discovery of a strong Union senti-The the star spangled banner, O, long may it but a vapor, a cloud, having only the general the future, will place her in the van of pow-ment in Tennessees" and elsewhere in the O'er the land of the free and the home of the outlines of a man.

And where is that hand that so vanutingly swors wisiter, in the same slow solesan tone as be- of the earth, had not God willed otherwise, into many other journals, to give to the pub-

"I felt unwhile to resist his command, even pacing sentinels, and their sullen looking gans. against lier.

every comp, every tent, every sentinel, every never be confounded.

tion of the war. And thus one idea was en- of Washington, grassing my mind, whom, once more, that alow, but sel my voice said:

"General Wolfellan, take your map, and time is short."

"I started, and, glancing at the unearthly caption. speaker, eaw him entend his arms and point Southwardly.

"Still I saw no featuren, "Smoothing out the largest and most ac-McClellan's arrival in Washington to take corate one, of my maps, I seized a pencel, and took a turn or two about the room, to command of the United States Army, found and once more bent my game out over the convince myself that I was really awake. I

"As I looked this time, a cold, thrilling As the hour came toiling through the chill ran over me, and the huge rough icide as the sour came toling through the and repository of miorination at the source of again began its sawing motion through my as though I had spent years in gathering and attempt secession in fact. The mass of Tenarmy wagons and artillery wheels, the wearl: heart. For, as pencil in hand, I compared ed hero, pushing from him his maps and re- the map before me with the living map, I ports, leaned his forebead on his folded arms saw messes of the enemy's forces being hur-strange and numberless ideas and thoughts upon the table before him and fell asleep so ried to certain points so as to thwart movedeep that even to occasional booming of the ments that, within a day or two, I intended heavy guns, being placed in position on the to make at Diose identical points; while on wisdom and guidance from on high. As I heavy guns, being placed in position on the entrangliments, was insufficient to disturb it. two particular approaches to Washington I aross refreshed in spirit, that same solemn "I could not have been slumbering thus beheld heavy columns of the fee posted for a more than ten minutes," said that Gen. to concentrated attack, that I instantly saw distance; thrown suddenly open, and some one strode Aml, as before my blood seemed to stop in active. Hastening out couriers, with orders distinuits frequently growing out of it. Mr. up to me, and, laying a hand upon my shoul- its channels for joy, it now did so for fear. to have executed certain manneauvers at certain Lincoln's proclamation came out, and the Rochester Empress, relates the following Ruin and defeat seemed to stare me in the points, (guiding mysell by that now, in my question was: Who are you for, Lincoln or romantic story: General McClellan, as you sleep at your face. At this dreadful moment that same eyes, unearthly map,) I threw myself into Davis? We old Whigs-Union men-repli-

"Kerner before in my life have I heard a "Gen. McClellan, you have been betrayed! to camp, had the have none. You see we can't fight you. We which they gladly accepted as affording anvoice possessing the commanding and even and had not God willed otherwise, era the enemy from his object, which, my friend, I think it very ungranious of you to ask us to perior rations. Among these was Corporal at it? Does anybody see it? Certainly, that also possess in and begin during my socar, the ribbs tone of the one that addressed me sun of to-morrow had set, the Confederate assure you, would have proved entirely suc- light for you. This is a democratic rebellion, M -- n, of New York, a young man of just what a the matter. Abundance will be the care, but just as she get these Marful words. And the sensation that flag would have floated above the Capital and cessful by reasons of the last piece of You got it up-you must fight it out. We wealthy parentage, of attractive numbers, return to our subject. Look at our great over shoe-top in trying to cross the gutter, passed through me, as it fell upon my ears, your grave. But note what you see. Your treashers, the glorious emblem of our the bell rang, away went the train with our

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo." pare it to the whistling, shricking, sweep of pory Mentor, my pencil was fiying with the can do us no harm. I have on it every white yield you the undivided glory of that achieves was occasionally permitted to visit the lawer and appliance.) "What are going to do with reference was occasionally permitted to visit the lawer and appliance.) a storm of grape-shot discharged directly spred of thought, transferring to the map be of information that I need, information that I need in the I through my brain. I could not move, hew- fore me all that I saw upon the licing map, the enemy would give millions to keep from undivided shame!" ever, although I tried hard to raise my head Some mysterious and uncarthly influence us. The fate of the war is settled, more heard that same slow, solemn voice "At last the task was done, and my pencil National power and retribution will, until ed from place -- and you now make war for time pointing to a young lady on the opposite what's the matter." (Findustastic classings) Communication will, until ed from place -- and you now make war for time pointing to a young lady on the opposite what's the matter."

dropped from my fingers.

the last word was uttered I regained by were I to live forever, should I forget what I affairs!

The table was still before me, and the maps, sublime benignity came gently upon the viz- prehension; we are the children of the present. the South neutral or quiet, was the convicall crumbled in my tightening clutch, were age, and, for the last time, I heard this slow, "When peace shall again have folded her tion that a sectional war at some time or other self-to-the task of epistolesy composition, in the reason billows fluments and where the still before me; but everything else had dis- selema voice, saying to me something like bright wings, and settled upon our land, that or was inevitable. The argument on both which he gracefully acknowledged his receipt devourin' elephants open their laws from 'em

"My gaze was turned Southward, and God's blessing was upon the notion, and can Nation of what, in their Second Great that it was given up as a hopeless task to at-the east to the Mississippi river westwardly, a peer with nations whose pages of history "But before fully fixing my attention up- extends for ages into the past. She has, on the immense scene, however, I thought since those dark days, by the favor of God. A Tennes heared but a mement previous and, I looked son of this prosperity, has she beer brought To the Elitor of the New York Tribune; lett, somewhat in front, at a distance of about the most perilous ordeal she has to endure. sayhoping to recognize him. But I was disap- maturity, she is called on to accomplish that surprise of Northerners and Northern presses er and civilization. It is portant lesson, Self- South, "This troubled me, and I was turning the control, Self-rule, that inhere that all nations Three months ago, I took occasion firalong matter over in my mind, when the shadewy have hitherto failed, and she too, the Republic letter, published in the Tribune and copied would by to-morrow's sun-set, have been a linea detailed expose of the state of affairs General McColina your time is short! broken heap of stones cast up over the final South. In that letter I chained, and I now grave of human liberty.

had I wished to do so, and again, therefore, borders like sweet incense unto Heaven and son concurs with me in this opinion. So does mind: First—The abolition of sla my at this I learned that she was of a wealthy family, the fifteenth anniversary of the establishment "Out on the Atlantic I saw the various more come upon her, and prosperity fill her used Trigg, R. J. Meigs, Esq., now of your ty. Second—The advocacy of an indiscrimi- among the c. F. Vs; and her letters, I when some thirty thousand catalog were in we els of the blockeding squadron looming up with joy. But her mission will not then be city, and every other Tennescee exile with nate abolition of slavery throughout the South was assured, evinced that the was no less lines with the most perfect distinctness in the yet finished, for ere another century shall whom I have conversed. Are we all mista- by loyal presses and Congressmen tends only intelligent and refused. bright most sline, that illuminated everything have gone by, the oppressors of whole earth, ken? or what sinister purpose have we to to arrengthen the rebellion by infuriating and When the clad tidings of our release came, with a strong, but mellow light. I saw having and envying her exaltation, shall join subserve in making an unfounded statement enlarging its soldiery, and driving other as the name of Corporal M — n was found in unit as a squadron of hussers were charging at Charleston Barbor and its torts, with their themselves together and raise up their hands of so grave a nature?

ground the gulf, to New Orleans, and thence high calling they shall surely be discomfitted. Old flag up the Tennessee. I venture to asup the Mississippi. Ft. Pickens, and, in fact, and then will be ended her third and Last sert there are this day in Middle Tennessee less dissolution, the death-lines of the Republicant vision was strained at press almost mileted with horror, for this child's res took in, in minute, but lightning like de- ty, however, remember the Lord, her Gad: cha dispensing with further detail, every living and, as I still continued gazing upon him of the Bell and Everett men, and dead thing, no matter what its highs or drew near to me and raised and spread out. IV. Now I came to answer the continued gazing upon him of the Bell and Everett men. with joy, as I thought, that the knowledge his lips, but I felt a strange influence coming men in the Union armies? We sill keep her hright blacen forever nestabed! and thereby we satisfie, thou given to use over me. I inclined my head forward to rewould insure a speedy and appy terminal ceive the blessing, the baptism of the spirit Secession armies, punish the rebels by confiscation, bunishment. A circumstance is connected with the ment alike for the oversion and the man.

note what you behold. Terry net; your in my department, with everything anactly Washington. We were subjugated—prison not our Union, our country, our Constitution, dressed to General McCleilan, was deposited as it was before I fell asleep with one ex- ers of War.

"The map on which I had dreamed I had been marking, was literally covered with a a network of pencil marks, signs and figures. "I rose to my feet, and rubbed my eyes, again seated myself, but the pencilings were plete a map and repository of information recording its details. "My mind now become confused with the voice seemed to say to me, from an infinite

" Your time is short! Tarry not?"

avalanche. The mighty, toppling mass of see that you are besten in an election-posi- presented him with a boquet at the same tians, when he said, front hog or die." That's the proper moment comes, now and then office. We concur with the Northern people, side of the street as the donor. The Corperal Alam-m-m I but to return to our subject look just been published in London, by Edmund "For a while previous to this however, I let slip down upon its victim forerunners that you are unfit to rule this mation. We acknowledged the gift with a polite how, and at our-look at had become conscious that there was a shin- of its approach.—And when the proper cannot light to reinstate you." "There was a peccliarity about it this ing of light on my left, that steadily increas- moment does come it will sweep down upon. That is what we said. the world for ages upon ages to come.

the Earth in His keeping.

understanding of man.

Good Political Meading. A POINTED AND PITHY LETTER!

"But her cries have come up out of her in the unjority in Tennessee. Senator John-

My voice was for war from the beginning -war for preventing enlistments in our neigh- are in it?

as plain as ever, and I had before me as com- redling, that the mass of their own voters and Union men there can command the mails and resseems were so amazed that a rebellion should break out without a decent bill of that crowded themselves into it, and I invol- party trick to make the Asiministration back untarily sank down upon my knees to seek down from the Chicago Platform; and hence to be effective. In Tennessee, we were Whigs and Demo- but not Br. Receber nor crats, between whom, as parties, there always has been a bitterness, political and social, which for years I expected to result in appeals to arms, in addition to the duels and time; it seemed as though I—a mere atom ed until the moment I ceased my task, when soil forever annihilate disunion with a VI. It so happens, that the leaders of the to his prison, and as he entered it she recipro-readin' something in ti-man, what's the manof matter—was suspended in the centre of it became in an instant more intense than the other that shall reverberate throughout Southern rebellion are personally and politic cated his bow, and leisurely walked away. ter, What did I see there?" (With more standard of the centre of it became in an instant more intense than the other standard of the centre of it became in an instant more intense than the other standard of the centre of it became in an instant more intense than the other standard of the centre of its proof of the centre of the cen cally the most edious men in the South. And For some inexplicable cause, the corporal ment.) "Provisions has rid. What's the confrom a hollow distance all around me. As "Quickly I raised my eyes, and never, "Sir, there shall be no more Bull Rain bence, even if we did not care a straw for the was not again permitted to go out, and a sequence? Coffee an' moissees had a fight. Union, we would rejoice to see them beaten negro-I should have mentioned that quite What's the consequence again?-Molasses, some felt and yet unknown power, my voli- saw. The dim, shadowy figure was no long- "God has stretched forth his arm, and in the contest. For ten years, Toombs, Da- a number of servants were in prison-was got licked, and coffee had to settle on its own tion, with the change, the grape-stot-dis- er a dim shadowy figure, but the glerified the American Union is saved! And our be- vis, Shidell, Meson, Hunter, Yancey, Rhett, dispatched in his stead. The negro had not grounds." (Applause.)—"That's just what's charge sensation in my brain cosed, and a and refulgent Spirit of Washington, the Fith- loved, glorious Washington shall again rest Harris & Co., have been as hateful to South- proceeded far when he was met by the the matter-or may other man." (Cheers.) strange but how one seized my heart; one or of his Country, and now a second time o quiety, sweetly in his tomb, until perhaps, ern Union men, as ever were Weed, Gildings, young lady referred to, and the sequal to the "Ahum-m-m' but to return to our subject." the end of the prophetic century approaches Greeky, or Wendell Phillips. And yet you interview was developed in a package with Look at 'em't Does Ans, -- When he is a shaving. "Like a weak, dazzled bird, I sat gazing that is to bring the Republic to her third are surprised that Tennessecons shed tears of which he returned to the officer, a quarters anybody see 'em? Do they not march forth Thank God, we can offset that now!

"That map is looked upon by no human cannot help you; we will throw no obstacles "handsome as Apollo."

"As I continued looking, an expression of "But that future is too vast for our com- VII. Another that kept Union men in arms. Our only regret is that this war in- edged his obligations by a polite note, which men South are willing that Slavery shall take Lext. the legitimate consequences of the war; that, I have omitted to state that the Corpora than Union Liberty. But--- that Slavery shall be abolished, and yet niggers not be removed from among us. You she will be saved. Thus shall peace once Mr. Maynard. So does Mr. Etheridge, Colotime by any means is an absolute impossibility and of as good blood as was to be found of the millimity order of the Maria Theresa. Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,

And the star-spenged bounce in triough

And the star-spenged bounce in trioug

The other side in Tennessee armed first—arm—or death, restore the Union; re-establish the chaguerreotype above related to which deserv-"The following instant a peal of thunder ed under the Governor's proclamation and the Constitution; enforce the laws; and unfur es a passing notice. Before it left the prison rolled in upon my ears, and I awoke. The authority of the Legislature. There were no the National hauner from all the ramparts of the picture was taken from the one and a Vision had departed, and I was again sitting arms left among us. We could get none from the Republic, rs in the times gone by. Is it small slip of paper closely written, and adand laws, and flag, as much as yours? Are therein and the daynerrentype then repliced. you warring on the South, or the rebels that It was saiely delivered to the Commander-borhoods for the Southern Confederacy. But XI. I write to encourage the national and the day following there was a lead my party overruled me, on the ground that a patriotism, by assuring the national heart that stopped—a mysterious look from high officidisplay of bravery under the circumstances there is a Union element South strong enough circles, and which had inestimably benefitted would be mere foolhardiness. Heft the State, to elect Federal Congressmen and loyal Leg- the rebels for many months. V. And now some unpalatable facts. The islatures, as soon as the present despotism Democratic party had so long tulked of se- there shall be dissolved; and that as soon as of the Whigs never would believe they would presses for concert of action, and can get arms,

> I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your very obedient servant, WM. S. SPEER, of Termossee, Jefferson Hotel, N. Y. City, Feb. 18, 1892. * No, Sir! You never heard any such amounts to this in his "Notes on Virginia, > > Acality in Romance.

Love at Sight and Without Sight. Corporal Merrill, in his letter to the proceeded upon his mission. The lady, ap- I'd like to know. Look at our newpapers, lawing eslection as specimens of its amusing

- tress-

"Only this and nothingmore."

had been sent back to his old queries, he quarters, he obtained employment as a cook, Corning he did-or may other man." But we Southern Unionists can never agree and was thereafter unfailingly at his post to reciprocate the loving smiles of his betrothed. advocate a free nigger harbarianism for the which he frequently exhibited to me. It was South: "No more o' that, Hal, an thou love slovely image, and one that would have required no "collateral" inducement to energy IX. Three propositions are clear to my captive the most frigid and lethargic fancy, seviewheld at Vischa upon the secsion of good Union men from the support of the Ad- the list. The intelligence was quickly con- all tilt-sweeping down with maddening ve-II. You chronicle with delight that old ministration. And third-An attempt by the veyed to his yesening admirer. We saw healty, may almost on the child. Terror par-"But if she still be found worthy, of her men shed tears of joy upon the ascent of the Federal Government to abolish slavery gen-nothing of her, nowever as we marched all set alike the spectators and the mother of

"This sight filled me with a delightful surs borders shall end only in the remotest corn- gracious rebellion known since the secession divided we have her hands full. Reverse the lance, and halted a short distance from our linesar, without less ening his speed or loosenprise; but it would be atterly impossible for use of the earth, and the whole earth shall of the devil and his angels from heaven to be describe the eastern annuament that beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! Those the beneath her shadowing wings, become a bell's abyss. Tweaty thousand! followed, as within the limits I mention, my Universal Republic. Let her in her prosperi- Government will give them arms and a cassarily disloyal. I dony it. We inherited crate officers of our guard, and the next in fruit of his saidle without so much as tail, every forest, every meanow, every river, let her trust be always in Him, and she shall HI. The Union party of the South scom- and political misfortune, of which at some M-n and his affianced) were face to face. In the least. A hundred thousand voices posed of one-half the regular Demograts, four-period we hope to get rid. But when we A few words, the first they had ever exearthwork, every cannon, and, I may say, "The heavenly visitant ceased speaking, of the Douglas voters, and three fifths hear such men as Horace Greeley and Dr. changed in person, were exchanged in soil-Beecher denounce the South as "a devil's dued, yet melting tones; their faces were for one a mother's, the other that of her sympaden," and "all men reared in a slave State as a moment lighted, as with a flame-the en-thining and beloved Empress. A proud mo-"My blood sessued to step in its channels like hands above me. No sound now passed ling question—Why are not Southern Union worthless and shiftless," we wonder why you gape ment was sacredly renewed—there was sacredly renewed—there was desire a Union with us." Nor the bestness a fervout, theilling pressure of their hands, his Euperer, taking the enameled cross of

All Sorts of Good Mending.

"OR ANY OTHER MAN." The speaker said :

parantly fascinated, followed him at a distance just look as 'em, can't pick up one without Look at our suilors! look at 'em! Do they | He takes every Miss for a Myth.

strange, unearthly, wonderful map, marked, sides seemed exhausted. "Let them fight, of the grit, and expressed his heartfelt thanks, an' - an' lay down in their warm harmonics of the apartment were gone, the ceiling was "General McClellan, while yet in the fiesh, while the spirit eyes of Washington looked and settle it in that way," was an expression. This was delivered by the negro on the day an'sleep? Certainly they do-or any other not to be seen. All I saw was the tablesu I Theheld the birth of the American Republic. on, shall be preserved among American following, and he returned with a package man. (A voice, "certainly,") "Alum-m-m. It was, indeed, a hard and bloody one, but archives, as a precious reminder to the Ameri- orators of the South were so given to lying, containing a number of pocket handkershiels. Brook at our firement Ah, those boys, just look at 'em! Do they not at the dead hour of hight, when the clock practices the hour of yes a living map, that is the only expression gle for existence, he sustained her, and with and the Glorified Spirit of Washington. from their assaults. It was natural we should not on which necompanied the gala was the anninght, an, when the harometer is 47 de-I can think of as befitting the scene. In one His mighty hand brought her out trium- "Verily the ways of God are above the be glad to have them vindicate themselves by denor's card. The corporal armin scknowl- press below Circum, do they not rush forth to voives the innocent with the guilty in its ca- was duly delivered through the same modium. Certainly they do, an' that's just what's the Theoceforth the Cornoral was in daily matter with me or any other man. Now, VIII. I do not write often for the press, receipt of the choice at dainties, and savegular what does the great and glorious Countition and while I am at it, I want to whisper a quistolary correspondence was carried on shun of this United Confederation of Penns word in thine ear-in thine especially. It is until the day of his release, which occurred syltucky say?-What does it say? That's this Let Slavery alone till this war be over, on the 3d of January. A matrimonial en- what I'd like to know. Does it not say-does I detest slavery as cordially as you or Charle: gagement had been made during the interval, not our Convinction say-does not our Con-Summer-perhaps more, for I have passed all with the understanding that the partie withrion say? Certainly it does; that's fast my life in the very midst of it. We Union would meet in Baltimore on the lat of March what it re z." (Sensation.) "What did Patrick Henry Jackson say? Did be not say that each and every one should stand upon his his beart, an' say with a clear conscience, the way; that slavery shall perish, rather daily promenaded within view of the officers, that he was a paper-doll, with a glass eye? The speaker retired staid thunders of ap-

A late Loadon poper cointes the following nationee of the horseman-lab displayed at a lators, becoming frightened, rushed forward ment, attached it to his breast-a proud mo-

Bomantic Incident.

A correspondent of the Hardin County Republican gives the following interesting incident, which occured during the transit of the 82d regiment to the "scat of war,"

"At one place along the road where we stooned to take on coal and water an incident occurred which impressed me as worthy of notice. From a desolate looking basel stowed away omong the rocks a quarter of a mile up the hillside came rouning down to the train like a gozelle, the most perfect besing it has ever fallen to the lot of the undersigned to look upon. This specimen The Great Struct on the Union. An ex- was a young glid of about fifteen unsephange says: To Wm. L. Myers, of Tillin, handwired years. The came dancing up to Ohio, we are included for a phonographic re- the train, out of treath, with heir all addiff, nort of that celebrated speech on the "Crisis," and exclaiming: "humah for the soldiers, he text of which is by universal consent, als hurrals for the soldless!" Our friend, who was sitting near me humming "the girl I left. school me, observing her animated and strictic style, protruded his head from the "Album-m-m! Feller-Citizens:--I have ess window and responded, in his usual een called upon this evenin to appear belong position way, "bully for you, my gul, you ron for-for that is, I have been requested to must like the soldlers? "You may bet your opear upon the-the see old this evening for the on that," said the, and, she continued argones of checidation to you the all-absorb- (I only wish I was a man, or a boy, I'll bet in' subjec' which are now agitatin' the-tree [54 gasto war." 'Well, said Guithetes, 'why but to return to our safged; as I was about are all goon, also replied, and I've a notice, I have before stated that some of the to remark previously, helorehand, what's our to get on the cars and no a part of the way General McClellan, do you sleep at your law. At this areading months and long ere daylight, galloying ed:

post! Rouse you, ere it can be precented, the slow, solemn voice struck once more upon the saddle; and long ere daylight, galloying ed:

my ears, saving:

Country comin' to? That's what I d like to granters—a service into you have arms, we employed in the officers' quarters—a service into you can just drop not an interpretation. liberty-just look at me." (liere the speak- discomplate friend, and the sweet bundle leave the prison on parole for the purpose the cloud capped summick of the Lichardre not been lit for duty since, and keeps his "Yes, but," replied the Democracy, "we of purchasing supplies. While thus passing mountain to the terrile abys of the Go hwal- mess awake half the night talking in his from the table. As a sense of my willing, was muon me, and I noted and recorded the "The rebellion truly seems very formidable, are fighting for the rights of the South!" through one of the main thoroughfares, lican avenue, and seems that the main thoroughfares, lican avenue, and seems the same of the same at the same of the main thoroughfares, lican avenue, and seems that the main thoroughfares, lican avenue, and seems the main thoroughfares, lican avenue, and seems

Why is a kiss like a sermon? It requires two heads and an application.

Why are touth like verbs? They are regilar, irregular, and defective.

Was Eve High or Low Church? Adam hought her Eve-angelical. Why is a horse the most wretched of aniunis? Because it rejoices in wo.

When is a man thinner than a shingle, If a bear were to go into a linea draper's shop, what would be want? He would want

Why is it impossible for a person who lisps